REGISTRATION POLICIES

Pre-Registration Postmark Deadline: September 25, 2010

1. If cancellation is necessary, it MUST be received in writing at the State PTA office by September 25, 2010. A refund check can be made only if received by that date. There will be a $25.00 processing fee for any cancellations. No refunds after September 25th.
2. Delegates who are transferring registrations or replacing advanced registrants must present a letter from the unit/council president authorizing the transfer.
3. Photo identification will be required to pick up your Legislative Assembly packet upon check in at the registration desk.
4. Student delegates must be PTA members and be enrolled in a primary, middle or secondary school served by a PTA/PTSA local unit.
5. Each PTA is entitled to the number of voting delegates shown below (based on the previous year's end-of-the-year membership).

Up to 299 memberships:	2 voting delegates
300-499 memberships:	3 voting delegates
500-699 memberships:	4 voting delegates
700-899 memberships:	5 voting delegates
Over 899 memberships:	1 voting delegate for each additional 200 memberships
Councils:	2 voting delegates

6. Voting delegate cards (based on the number above) will be mailed to unit/council presidents in early September. (If your PTA has co-presidents, the voting delegate cards will be sent to the first president alphabetically). In order to vote at Legislative Assembly, a voting delegate card (signed by the PTA president) must be presented at check in.
7. By attending this event, attendees consent to the taking of photographs and to WSPTA's use of such photographs as part of the promotion or conduct of this and other WSPTA events or matrails.

If you have any questions about these policies, contact the State PTA office at 1-800-562-3804 or wapta@wastatepta.org.
