Class Session 1 (6:30 – 7:40 PM)

101. Leading The Team – Debbie Straus, WSPTA Leadership Director

Learn the key elements of leading and being a member of a responsible and professional board of directors. Topics include team dynamics, responsibilities, legal requirements, and best practices for running board meetings. Focuses on roles of president/vice president and all board members. Recommended for interested board members.

102. Money Matters – Anne Baer

Financial management of the PTA is not just the responsibility of the treasurer. Legal and fiduciary requirements and responsibilities are covered in this workshop. All elected officers and other interested board members are encouraged to attend.

103. For the Record – Allyson Johnson, Service Delivery Team

Introduction of elements of minutes and record keeping of a PTA association. Recommended for secretaries and other interested board members.

104. Energizing Secondary PTSA – Sharon Pfeiffer, Service Delivery Team

Secondary parent involvement is crucial and certainly different than primary school. Give your secondary PTA a jump-start with this interactive consideration of what is unique and powerful about secondary PTAs. Recommended for all board members.

105. Simple Majority – First Step for Education Funding

In collaboration with other education organizations WSPTA has worked tirelessly to get Simple Majority to the voters – this November it is! Learn how Simple Majority is a first step in reforming the Education Funding crisis Washington State faces. Discuss how PTA has participated in this effort, how you can become engaged in this historical constitutional change, and brainstorm together activities to make Simple Majority a reality. This is an interactive class, with group discussion. Recommended for all PTA members.

Class Session 2 (7:50 – 9:00 PM)

201. General Meetings – Debbie Straus, WSPTA Leadership Director and Grace Rawsthorne, Service Delivery Team

Discuss ideas for designing interesting and fun PTA meetings that will draw your members in and keep them coming back. Special attention will be given to creating a friendly and professional climate and building confidence as the presiding officer. Recommended for president, vice president, secretary and interested board members.

202. Membership - Maureen Monson, Service Delivery Team

As a membership organization WSPTA members are vital to our success. Learn the components of a membership campaign, how to encourage participation, and ideas to recognize the members who work tirelessly for children. Recommended for membership chairs and interested board members.

203. PTA Newsletter Basics – Niki Nelson, Service Delivery Team

In this class, you will learn how to plan, write and publish a PTA newsletter.

204. Reflections – Sharon Pfeiffer, Service Delivery Team

Learn how to conduct and promote a successful Reflections Program in your PTA community. Gain ideas on how to start or re-energize your program from promotion to judging. Recommended for Reflections chairs and interested board members.

205. Simple Majority – First Step for Education Funding (Repeat of Session 1 Class 105)

In collaboration with other education organizations WSPTA has worked tirelessly to get Simple Majority to the voters – this November it is! Learn how Simple Majority is a first step in reforming the Education Funding crisis Washington State faces. Discuss how PTA has participated in this effort, how you can become engaged in this historical constitutional change, and brainstorm together activities to make Simple Majority a reality. This is an interactive class, with group discussion
Recommended for all PTA members.

206. Legislation – Education Funding & Focus Day – Jerri Wood, Service Delivery Team
